

HELEN DESBOIS

Helen Desbois is an all-round performer with more than 20 years experience gained on stage, TV and radio. She is an actress, singer, dancer, voice artist, recording artist and radio presenter with vast experience in all mentioned fields. These include appearing in various stage productions, such as A Lad n' a Lamp for Janice Honeyman, Joe Parker's Puss n' Boots, the lead in Boogie Nights for the Joburg Theatre, the role of Madonna in Immaculate the Madonna Tribute, Debbie Does Dallas, understudy to lead and supporting lead and the smash hit musical, We Will Rock You, Hazel Feldman's touring production to NZ and Asia. She has appeared in many TV shows too, from Hard Copy, Isidingo and 'Shado's' to 'One Way' and 'Generations' with her debut as a lead in 'Honeytown'. Her film credits include, Stephen King's "Mangler" and "The Long Run" and she can be seen in "Resilient" due for release later this year in the US not to mention local comedy film "Supermama" in a cameo role.

Helen has presented on Teleschool and the Milo Gameshow with many commercials under her belt as well, including Vanish, KFC and Lasher Tools to name but a few. Helen also spent a week in the Big Brother house on the celebrity version of the show, raising millions for charity.

SAMA nominee, Desbois, also loves her music and has released 6 singles to date with the smash hit 'Anything' really putting her on the map. She made her comeback last year with the well-received 'Like I Need You' and has another single due for release in August 2017.

Radio presenting is close to her heart, with four MTN Radio Award nominations and one win under her belt, for 'Best Daytime Community Presenter'. Helen has worked on East Rand Stereo, ChaiFm and CliffCentral and now co-hosts the breakfast show on Mix938FM with Tony Blewitt weekday mornings, 6-9am. She is a popular voice artist as the voice of the Peoples Weather Channel and credits with Disney, Citroen, Sealy, DStv, Trace Sports International and many more.
